

The Telegram

ARTS/ENTERTAINMENT

Wednesday, August 10, 2005

ENTERTAINMENT BRIEFS

Company releasing chart-toppers

A local record company is scoring big on the music scene.

For the week ending July 31, Avondale Music placed four titles on the Top 20 SoundScan chart for Newfoundland.

The titles charted were Jason Greeley's Live Love Sing, No. 1 for the sixth consecutive week.

The latest compilation under the Homebrew label was No. 2.

Two more collections, Newfoundland Drinking Songs and Our Songs, came in at No. 9 and No. 18 respectively.

Avondale Music has just released three additional albums: Patrick Moran and Chris Andrews, No Place Like Home; The 8 Track Favourites, One Track Mind and Newfoundland Karoke Kitchen Party.