Former Peninsula residents win music industry awards

Two former Burin Peninsula residents, Lyle Drake from St. Lawrence and Kevin Kelly from Marystown, have received Music Newfoundland and Labrador Industry Awards.

The presentations came during the MUSICNL Awards Nov. 4-6 in Grand Falls-Windsor.

Lyle Drake was awarded 'Volunteer of the Year' and Kevin Kelly was honoured as 'Media Person of the Year'.

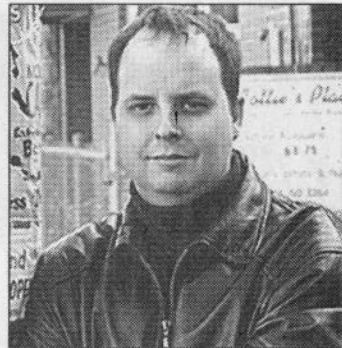

Lyle was also nominated in the 'Company of the Year' and 'Industry Professional of the Year' categories. This is Lyle's second award as he was honoured in 2004 as the Music Industry 'Industry Professional of the Year'.

Both these individuals now reside in St. John's. Lyle has spent 36 years in the music industry and owns Avondale Music, a Newfoundland Record Label producing CDs by Newfoundland artists.

Kevin has been in the music business for several years and is a writer for The Newfoundland Herald as well as a Radio Host at CHMR Radio.
